Club supports the foundation with $500...

The Sailing Foundation's Abby Finney receives a check for $500 from the Sailing Club's Rebecca Hughes.

I just heard that the Sailing Club just made a $500 contribution to the Sailing Foundation, and got the chance to get a picture for you of the check being awarded last Friday...here's more from the FHSC's commodore, Rebecca Hughes:

The purpose of the Friday Harbor Sailing Club is to organize, promote and encourage amateur sailing, racing and powerboat activities to include races and cruises and to provide regular social and educational meetings for its members and guests.

The FHSC has been contributing to the Sailing Foundation for numerous years. With our donation to the foundation we want to encourage the younger sailors to become great racers and eventually join our club someday to teach us a few new tips.
